

Collections & Asset Recovery

Question:

Is receiving value for money from your asset recovery service proving difficult to qualify?

Question:

Are you struggling to recover high levels of debt due to the change in the economy?

Question:

Do you need to appoint a new law firm at your next panel review?

If you want your business to enjoy lower levels of bad debt provision by utilising a proven, low maintenance, cost effective source, then you should be talking to us.

At Chafes we specialise in helping Lending Firms hit their Recovery Goals. We provide companies with a comprehensive, state of the art system capable of handling both high volume and complex individual cases. The result is more assets recovered in less time leading to increased cash and profits for you.

Unlike many other providers, we have the latest technology available to provide in depth transparent management reports, which clearly outline the return on your investment at every stage of the process.

John Perez, active member of the Finance Leasing Association, and his experienced team have carved out an enviable reputation for their knowledge of Motor Finance law. Every member of the team is legally trained and can offer strategic and tactical advice on all aspects of asset recovery issues. There is always someone available to talk through your options, even outside normal office hours.

John's partner level involvement ensures client satisfaction and 'Peace of Mind' from the pre-issue stage right through to enforcement. We also provide a specialist defended litigation service and provide advice on both compliance and regulatory issues. Our system provides a one-stop service from the pre-legal stage right through to litigating on multi million pound defended disputes.
